Claim Number: 27736
Date Filed: 09/22/2009

Title of Objection: Creditor's Objection to Debtor's Request to Disallow and Expunge Pension-Related Obligations

Margaret E. Gattuso hereby requests that the above claim pertaining to ERISA based retirement / pension benefits is NOT DISALLOWED & EXPUNGED. MARGARET E. GATTUSO does oppose the disallowance and expungement of her claim listed above.

Such pension benefits were accrued and earned based on over 15 years of service. Margaret E. Gattuso had sufficient service from Neuberger Berman, acquired by Lehman Brothers in October 2003, and from Lehman Brothers. Such benefits should not be reduced by any settlement with PBGC.

Amount of claim is approximately $200,000 based upon an estimated full monthly pension benefit estimated at $525 per month over a period of 30 years (normal retirement).

Records of MARGARET E. GATTUSO's account are available through Lehman Brother's records or through the PBGC. Due to the immediate nature of the Lehman Brother's bankruptcy, sufficient time was not available to retrieve employee records.

Please send any future correspondence to the Creditor's name and address listed above.

Thank you,
